

Aiming for a clean sweep

● Feather Flickers: heading for The Open

A TEAM from Southport is hoping to make a clean sweep at the Open Golf championship at St Andrew's golf club next week (July 11-18).

After successful stints for leading sports, entertainment and media firm IMG at the last two Opens, a team of eight from Feather Flickers are this year tasked to clean the main base at IMG HQ in St Andrew's, along with two other IMG bases and more than 20 residential properties being rented by some of the world's top golfers.

Boss Greg Gottig said: "It is very exciting to be part of the Open Championship again."
